CrossRoads Physical Therapy Announces Women's Health Open House Raffle Winner

CrossRoads Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation held a Women's Health Open House at their Duncansville location on April 24, 2013. The event was open to any and all interested parties to learn more about the Women's Health Therapy Program offered, and to openly discuss health issues that women face.

Attendees were invited to tour the Women's Health Suite, and receive a more in depth description of treatment plans for various diagnoses, such as; pelvic pain, urinary incontinence, pre/post-partum pain, and urge frequency.

Each attendee entered their name into the drawing for a Kindle Fire. The lucky winner was Virginia Kimberly of Bellwood, PA. CrossRoads Physical Therapy COO and MSPT, Tim Parnell, and Tammy Garrett, COTA, congratulated Virginia recently when she stopped in to accept her prize.
